ORDER

Computer Intelligence² Inc. claimed that it was entitled to $2,152,630.03 more than it had been paid under a task order issued by the General Services Administration (GSA) for the provision of telecommunications support services. A GSA contracting officer denied the claim. The contractor appealed this decision and later increased the amount of its claim to $3,289,026.40.

The parties engaged in extensive settlement negotiations, as a result of which they have agreed to resolve their dispute. Under their settlement agreement, GSA will pay to the appellant the sum of $2,600,000.

The parties have asked that the appeal be dismissed with prejudice. The Board grants the request. The appeal is DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE.
